

Justice for All

Scene at the Clinic

The people who come to VLSC for legal help are everyday people—working parents, senior citizens, immigrants—and their legal problems, while rarely very complicated or groundbreaking, are real:

Norma, whose husband left her while she was pregnant with their third child.

Angela, who needed help filing for bankruptcy.

June, an elderly disabled woman who had rented part of her home to tenants who had not paid rent in three months.

Rihan, who needed legal help to adopt his four-year-old stepdaughter.

Dine Around for Justice

A gastronomical fundraising event on Thursdays this August

This August, some of our finest local restaurants will join VLSC to present Dine Around for Justice, an annual event to raise funds for legal services to low-income people in Alameda County. Several restaurants have committed to donate 15% of their evening food and alcohol revenue to support VLSC. Read more...

Comprehensive Family Law Training Returns This October

The Alameda County Bar Association Volunteer Legal Services Corporation (VLSC) and Bay Area Legal Aid (BayLegal), along with the ACBA Family Law Section, host the fourth annual Family Law Training Series -- The Basics, a comprehensive family law training series for new attorneys and attorneys transitioning into the area of family law. Learn how to handle a family law case from initial client intake through judgment from the family law bench and seasoned family law attorneys. Read more...

Be of Service: Volunteer with VLSC

This summer, President Barack Obama and First Lady Michelle Obama are asking all Americans to make volunteerism and community service a part of our daily lives.

During a twelve-week nationwide service initiative, "United We Serve," which began on June 22, we are all urged to step up and help respond to the growing social needs resulting from the economic downturn. Read more...
