

SECTIONS

By joining any of our practice area sections, members receive invitations to social networking events, can help choose MCLE program topics, plus the opportunity to make their voices and opinions heard. Membership is $35 per section. Attorney members with fewer than ten years in practice are automatically enrolled in the Barristers Section for free.

For our more than 1,500 members, membership in the Alameda County Bar Association brings educational opportunities, networking events, professional development, and a chance to lead and shape the legal community in Alameda County. We have programs and benefits that apply to a range of legal professionals, from judges and attorneys, to paralegals and law students.

WE NOW HAVE THREE NEW WAYS TO PAY

Auto Renewal – Manage your bar membership just like your Netflix subscription. Sign up for annual auto renewal and you will receive a notice at least 30 days in advance of your automatic renewal. You can sign-up or unenroll at any time through your member portal.

Installment Option – Pay dues in 3 month installments (total of 4 payments). We understand lump payments can be tough to carry on tight budgets!

Premiere Membership – Save time and grief! Premiere Annual Membership means ACBA Staff take care of signing you up for your favorite ACBA events with an option to include a plus one, and we'll remind you before the event! We'll also list your name and firm on our website as a Premier Member and in our e-Newsletter and annual magazine. Options to pay monthly.

"I believe that working with the LRS has been an important part of my success as an attorney. The LRS has helped me to establish a great deal of contacts, not just with clients and potential clients, but also with other attorneys and court personnel that I might not have met had it not been for the LRS. The LRS is vital to anyone looking for more exposure."

—Michelle Jacobson-Kwok, ACBA Member

In addition to its support for lawyers, the ACBA has a strong commitment to public service. As a member, you are invited to participate in the following programs:

Court Appointed Attorneys Program

The Court Appointed Attorneys Program (CAAP) provides quality legal services to criminal defendants facing prosecution when the Office of the Public Defender declares a conflict of interest. Panel attorneys' criminal defense experience ranges from a few months to decades and from simple misdemeanors to special circumstances death penalty cases. To become a CAAP panel member, please contact CAAP Administrator Sarah Brooks at (510) 302-2204 or sarah@acbanet.org.

Lawyer Referral Service

The ACBA Lawyer Referral Service matches clients who need legal representation with lawyers who can help. Our service is well-established and certified by the State Bar of California under Business and Professions Code §6155, and by the American Bar Association. The LRS receives more than 18,000 calls a year. Our trained staff only refer cases matching your experience and interest. Whether you're hanging out a shingle for the first time or have an established practice, LRS can help your practice grow. To become a LRS panel member, please contact LRS Director Beth Litwin at (510) 302-2210 or beth@acbanet.org.

Volunteer Legal Services Corporation

The ACBA Volunteer Legal Services Corporation is the pro bono arm of the ACBA. VLSC mobilizes volunteer attorneys to provide pro bono legal services to low-income people in Alameda County. VLSC volunteers provide assistance at clinics in family law, bankruptcy, guardianship and more. Support VLSC by volunteering and by making a generous donation along with your membership dues or over our secure website. For more information on how to volunteer or donate, please contact VLSC Director Christina Wiertellette at (510) 302-2216 or christina@acbanet.org.
