

Do you have a passion for championing the underdog? Are you ready to take on cases that make a real difference in the lives of those society has largely abandoned?

Join the ACBA Court Appointed Attorneys Program (CAAP) Panel! We welcome applications from attorneys of all experience levels to handle misdemeanor, family law contempt, juvenile, SVP, and serious felony cases.

→ Why Join the Panel?

- Flexibility: Take on as many or as few cases as your schedule allows, allowing you to maintain control over your workload.
- Professional Growth: Build your professional profile and gain valuable trial experience by representing clients facing various legal challenges.
- Commitment to Justice: CAAP is dedicated to promoting justice and maintaining high standards of professionalism, competency, diligence, and integrity within the criminal defense bar in Alameda County.
- Competitive Hourly Rate: Not only are our rates competitive, but they will also increase by 5% for the next three years starting July 2024.

What is CAAP?

CAAP is a dynamic program designed for criminal defense attorneys committed to fighting for justice and representing indigent clients in Alameda County. As a panel member, you step in when there is a conflict with the Office of the Alameda County Public Defender, ensuring that those in need receive quality legal representation.

Learn More & Apply Today

For more information, including hourly rates and application details, please visit the CAAP webpage. Check out our new streamlined application!

ANDREA ZAMBRANA

 (510) 302-2202

andrea@acbanet.org

acbanet.org

